Telstar Regional High School
Bethel, ME 04217

Dear Telstar Students,

In my new role as Superintendent of Schools, I look forward to providing Telstar High School with a level of support that will allow us to continue in our quest for quality education.

I have had the opportunity to work with many of you over the years and I am proud of the successes you have enjoyed along the way. I am hopeful that your time here will filled with achievement and continued growth.

To the seniors, I extend my congratulations and best wishes for a future filled with happiness and accomplishment. Best wishes for a terrific year.

David A. Murphy, Ed.D.

To the Class of 2003:

Congratulations! You have successfully completed your high school career and are ready to take on whatever comes next. For some of you the future means college, for some it means the military, and for some it means the world of work. As graduates of Telstar High School, you are prepared!

When you think back on your life here at THS, you will remember the friendships, the special events, the laughter, and maybe even the tears. I challenge you to hold on to your memories and let them spur you on to even greater things. Remember, too, that life and learning are journeys not destinations: keep learning and living life to the fullest.

I am proud of each of you and grateful to have had the opportunity to know you. Always be a Rebel!

Shawn L. Lambert
Principal

Congratulations to the Class of 2003

"To laugh is to risk appearing a fool. To weep is to risk appearing sentimental. To reach out to another is to risk involvement. To expose feelings is to risk rejection. To place your dreams before the crowd is to risk ridicule. To love is to risk not being loved in return. To go forward in the face of overwhelming odds is to risk failure.

Risks must be taken because the greatest hazard in life is to risk nothing. The person who risks nothing, does nothing, has nothing, is nothing. He may avoid suffering and sorrow, but he cannot learn, feel, change, grow or love. Chained by his certitudes, he is a slave. He has forfeited his freedom."

Only a person who dares to risk is free. I want to take the opportunity to wish for you the freedom to pursue success and happiness as graduation opens the door to the rest of your life.

Carroll Higgins
Assistant Principal/Athletic Director

To the Class of 2003,

It has been great fun to watch you mature into such young adults. All of us, your parents, teachers, and community have tried to give you a strong foundation on which to build your future. We hope that we have helped you to believe in yourself and to know that you are loved and supported. These are the roots that keep you strong. We also hope that we have helped you to face the future with optimism and to dream of what that future can be. We want you to know that you can help to make a better world, that your voice needs to be heard, and that if you listen, others will also have important things to say. These are the wings that help you fly. When you look back at your years at Telstar, I hope you have fond memories, but I also hope you remember the harder times and the lessons you learned. Remember too, the many people who wish you success and happiness. Whatever life brings, we will be happy to hear from you.

With best wishes,
Mrs. Bean

The last four years I have had the honor of watching many of you grow and mature into young adults. I would like to thank you for allowing me to grow and learn along with you.

The training period of life is almost over. It is time for you to apply what you experienced and learned here towards your success. Set your goals high and your dreams even higher. Do not hang your head when times are rough, stay grounded when times are good and always remember to find the humor in life.

Scott Edwards
THS Dean of Students

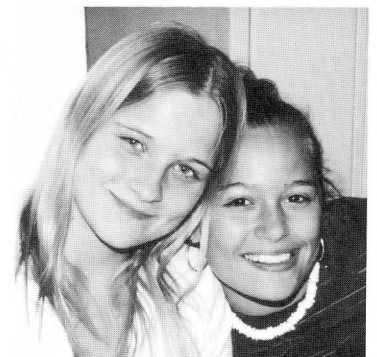

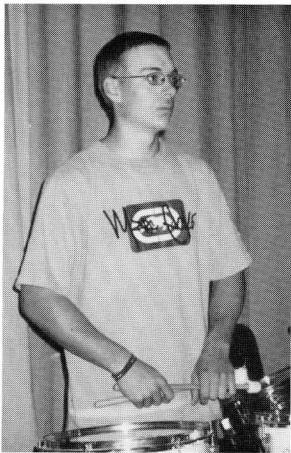

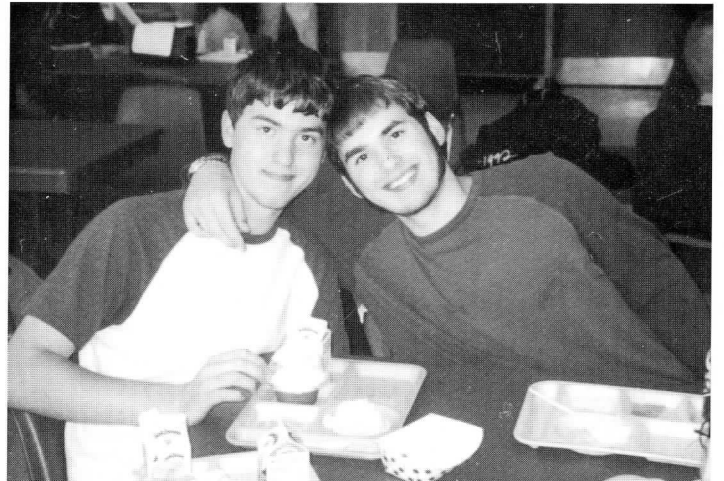

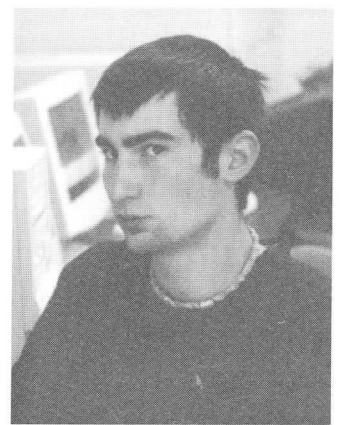

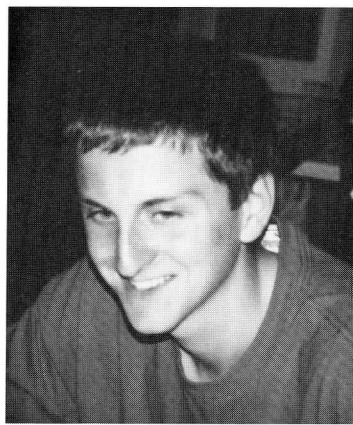

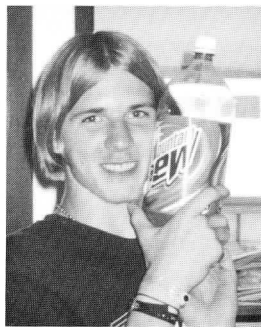

Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow,
I am the gentle autumn's rain.

When you awaken in the morning's hush,
I am the swift uplifting rush,
Of quiet birds in circled light.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.

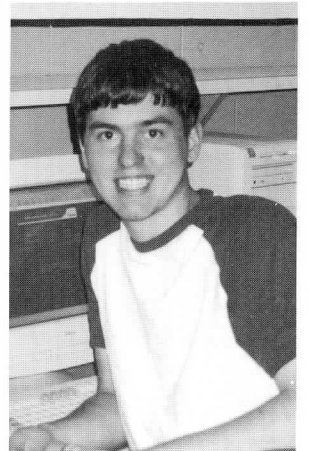

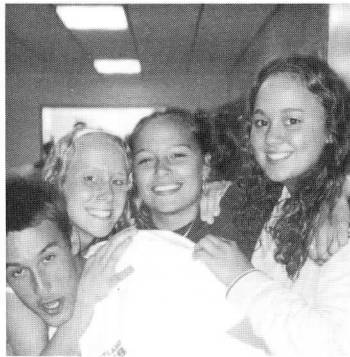

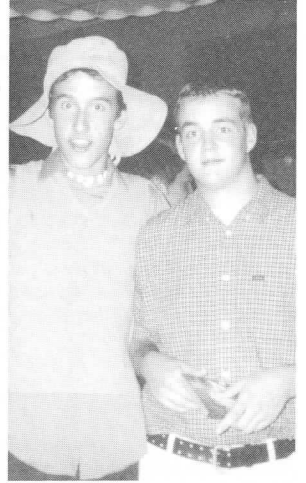

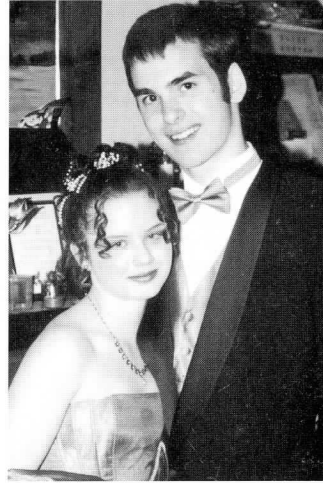

Do not stand on my grave and cry,
I am not there, I did not die.

An Indian prayer

I want to thank Ms. Belling for always hassling me on staying in school and doing my work. I want to say it's been fun but I would be lying, so just make school the best it can be. "at first you don't succeed, try, try again."

Fred Bailey

Time has come and gone, to where I do not know. School has had its up and downs, but now it is over. Playtime is done; now it is time to be serious. School was never so bad, especially not when you have amusing friends. Skiers and runners are the best, they're all just as crazy and misunderstood as me! For those who run or ski, keep up the good work; for those who do not, you should try them! After all, our school has some very good, lesser known, traditions that must be maintained. It was all great while it lasted, but now we must move on. Life never stops, nor should we. No dream is unachievable; it's just the amount of work you do now that limits that dream!! So when school, work, or life in general seems like hell, don't get stressed, just remember, it is more important to relax and have fun!

Letter from Heaven-In loving memory of Donald Ryerson and Matt Collins.

To my dearest family, some things I'd like to say . . . but first of all, to let you know, that I arrived ok. I'm writing this from heaven. Here I dwell with God above. Here, there's no more tears of sadness; here is just eternal love. Please do not be unhappy just because I'm out of sight. Remember that I'm with you every morning, noon and night. When you think of my life on earth, and all those living years, because you are only human, they are bound to bring you tears. But do not be afraid to cry; it does relieve the pain. Remember there would be no flowers, unless there was some rain. But one thing is for certain, though my life on earth is o'er. I'm closer to you now, than I ever was before. And now I am contented . . . that my life has been worthwhile, knowing as I passed along the way, I made somebody smile. When you're walking down the street, and you've got me on your mind; I'm walking in your footsteps only half a step behind. That day I had to leave you when my life on earth was through, God picked me up and hugged me and He said, "I welcome you." God gave me a list of things, that he wished for me to do. And foremost on the list, was to watch and care for you. And when it's time for you to go . . . from that body to be free, remember you're not going . . . you're coming here to me . . . We miss you guys, Love, Amanda

The end of the year is near. I will miss some things about Telstar and some people. Unfortunately I'll remember getting hit with sparklers, kicking MS in the face ^ ^ . I'll miss watching Anime with MS, KK, BS, MP, AJ and SF his laugh was the greatest part. Parties at SF's with, AJ, JH, FG, AH, JH, JA, DM, JH, AF, KK, MP, JW, MS, BS, MS, AB and all the guys. I'll always being showing off about the Beowulf claymation. There are few times in my life that I cannot find the words for. At the time this is written, I am months away from the concrete finality that will send me into the next phase of my young life. I will leave my comfortable niche in the world for a great unknown, a reality that frightens and excites at the same time. I can't really fathom that I'll be leaving here yet, but I assume it will come with time. To my family, I love you. The hardship we have endured has made me only stronger, I'm forever grateful. I am what I am because of you. I love you Mom, Dad, Meg and Taylor. My extended family, you're all a part of me. Charli, I love you. You're my lady; I'll cherish you always. Joe, Pete, E, What could you say? Clobius was hands down the greatest thing I've ever done. Who knows, maybe we'll do it again. Leave one Pab. Winter Olympics, The Soob, The Jeep, The FIELD. 4th of July in the rain I turned all green. Laurie, Lari, Terry, my second family. You guys were the best, I genuinely miss you. The Bennetts, thank you. To my senior brethren, four years in the making and now we're made. And so my life once again changes gears. I'll send you all a postcard when I'm rockin out and famous ☺

Kristina J. Koskela

Have you ever noticed that when people are sad or lonely they think back for an old happy memory so that they may feel better? People cherish old memories, but, do you know what? There is one thing that is more cherishable than an old memory. That thing is to make new memories. You shouldn't always have to look back. You should always look forward. I would like to say thanks to my friends Allan, Mary, Jon, Adam H, Mike, Ben, Adam J, Matt, Mat, Beth, Kelsie, Jeff, Jay, Jaqui, Maegan, Sean, Jared, Francesco, and especially Eric (plus others I didn't mention) for all the fun times and love shared. ^^ LONG LIVE ANIME CLUB!!!!!! ☺ WUBBIES ☺

As we say good-bye in this our final year, we try to hold back those overpowering tears. We remember those times that seem so long ago, as we grew up together through highs and lows. We knew this day would eventually be here, but had no idea of its overwhelming fear. The years have flown by but the memories remain, these faces and names will always stay the same. So as you go out into the world unknown, always remember there's no place like home." Finally . . . to the Class of 2003 . . . "Hakuna Matata."

I want to thank everyone who has meant something to me. High school has been a test, but now it's a test that I've passed. It will be really great to walk out of here, but four years ago it was good to walk in. Having so long to wonder if I was being educated or oppressed, I can now say that I was being educated so that hopefully I'll never again have to be oppressed. It has been the people who make the difference; I hope you all know who you are because I have no doubt that your influence will only become more evident to me after I am gone. I'll say au revoir with one wisdom from the Society of Friends: "Let your life be your testimony"

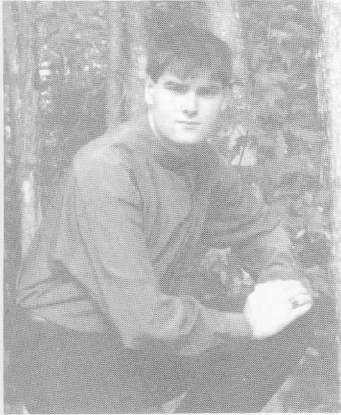

Chris Robinson

Wow, 2003 already, where did the time go? Just yesterday it seemed, I was walking into Telstar as a 6th grader, out of place and scared. "Bat your eyes girl, be otherworldly, count your blessings, seduce a stranger. What's so wrong with being happy? Kudos to those who see through sickness. When she woke in the morning, she knew that her life had passed her by. And she called out a warning: Don't ever let life pass you by. I suggest we learn to love ourselves before it's made illegal. When will we learn? When will we change? Just in time to see it all fall down. Those left standing will make millions writing books on the way it should have been." -Incubus Andy: It's been weird. I would have been so bored . . . Sarah: Keep smiling. John: Thanks for listening. Ben: I don't even know where to begin! Laura: Haven't known you for that long, but it's been fun. Clay: You keep Poston in line. Steph: Kick some (ahem) goalie butt. Everyone else: You know I love you. It's a space issue, you know who you are. Destiny is not a matter of chance; it is a matter of choice. It is not a thing to be waited for, but a thing to be achieved.

Michelle - You Are Special

Don't ever forget that you are unique. Be your best self and not an imitation of someone else. Find your strengths and use them in a positive way. Don't listen to those who ridicule the choices you make. Travel the road that you have chosen and don't look back with regret. You have to take chances to make your dreams happen. Remember that there is plenty of time to travel another road - and still another - in your journey through life. Take the time to find the route that is right for you. You will learn something valuable from every trip you take, so don't be afraid to make mistakes. Tell yourself that you're okay just the way you are. Make friends who respect your true self. Take the time to be alone too, so you can know just how terrific your own company can be. Remember that being alone doesn't always mean being lonely; it can be a beautiful experience of finding your creativity, your heart-felt feelings, and the calm and quiet peace deep inside you. Don't ever forget that you are special and so are your dreams. Your loving Aunts, Sandy, Bubba & Berta

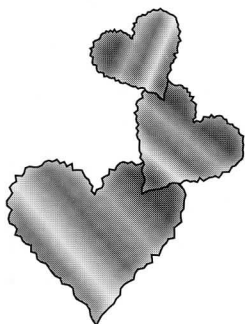

Chris, It seems like only yesterday, you took your first baby steps. You have matured into a wonderful young man and you are about to take some new steps. Remember we will always be behind you in whatever you do or wherever you go. Congratulations! We Love You! Mom and Dad

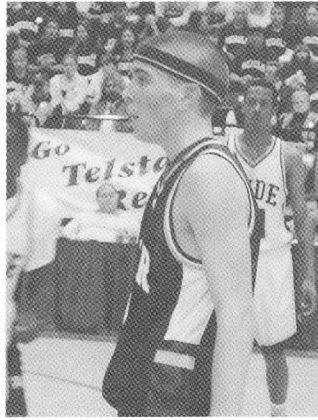

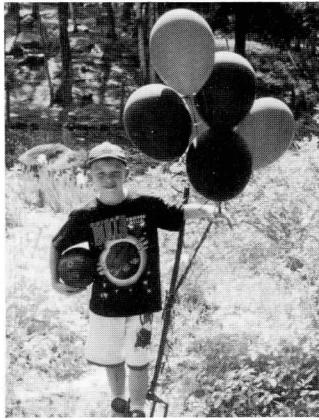

There are so many things I could thank you for and so many things I could kick your - - - for, but how about I start off by saying thank you for being my brother and role model. I hope that whatever the future holds, you will be worthy enough, for someone as special as you. Congratulations on your step into the future. Love, Simon. Peace Dog

Over the past 10 years you have taught me several valuable things and I just want to say thanks and I love you. Love your lil Sis.

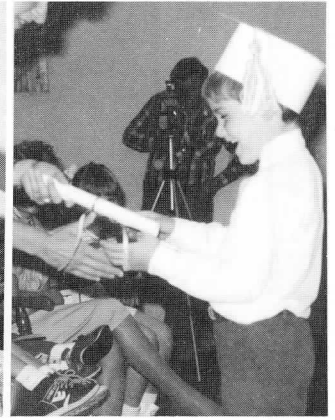

Adam,

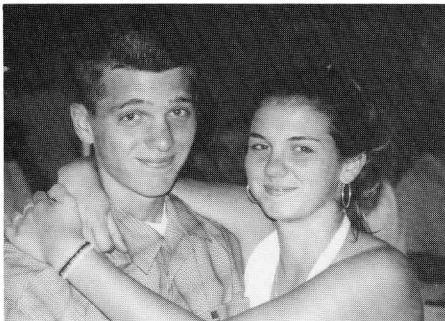

As I went through your pictures for the yearbook I had tears in my eyes. You have always been a determined individual as evidenced by this picture (haha). If you wanted something you went after it! This will serve you well as you venture into the unknown world that is ahead of you. Adam you are a deeply caring individual and please let others see that part of you. I am thankful that you are my son. You should be proud of who you are because you are unique. We look forward to watching you go into this next phase of your life. Please be warned that it is not easy, but with your determination and spirit, you will fulfil what you set out to achieve. Your family loves you and congratulates you on your great accomplishment! I love you always & forever. Mom

Kinsey,
When did that little blonde haired boy with the blueberry eyes grow? Your antics and sense of humor have kept us laughing. Basketball is your game. Your drive to be the best that you can be is admirable. Whether it be sports or academics, you shine. You've become a handsome, intelligent, confident, talented independent young man! We're so proud of you! We love you!, Dad, Mom, Jess & Kaleb

Mathew,
Remember that with age comes wisdom, it's ok that you don't know it all, right now. Remember to keep dreaming big, just grab at the small things that give you happiness. Remember that now that High School is over the world before you is your calssroom and your education will never stop. Remember through your commencement exercise, this is not merely an ending, but a whole new beginning. Remember your admiration for "fire", Mathew, take your diploma, use it as the fuse, take your dreams and goals , use them as the match, then set the world on fire. Keep Smiling, keep joking, continue to be the fine man you have become. We love you and are proud of you! Love, Mom, Dad, Alyson, Grammie B. & Grammy S.

Wade,
Congratulations! I know you will go far in whatever you do. Thanks for being a great brother.
Love Erin

Dear Michele Deegan, It's up to you to make your dreams the best they can be. This life is the only one you're given. Look for opportunities to grow, and never be discouraged in your efforts to do so. Replace your weaknesses with positives; take life's broken pieces and re-create your dreams. Never measure the future by the past; let yesterday become a memory and tomorrow a promise. Begin each day by focusing on all that is good, and you'll be in a position to handle whatever comes along. Take responsibility for your actions; never make excuses for not being the best you can be. If you should slip, be comforted by the thought that we all do at times. Determine your tomorrow by the choices you make today, and you'll find yourself living in joy and triumph. We love you, Dad, Mom and Grammie Deegan.

"The past and present here unite beneath time's flowing tide like footprints hidden by a brook, but seen on either side." -Longfellow

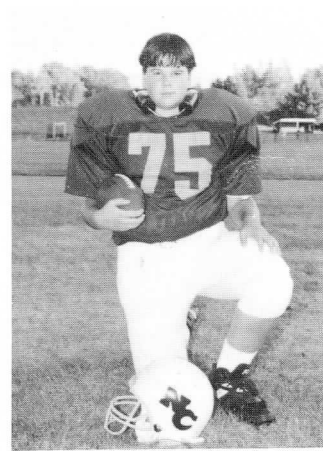

Adam & Eric,
As life now leads you down separate paths, we wish you the very best. We'll always be there, proud of you. Love us.

The best to you, love from all your bros.

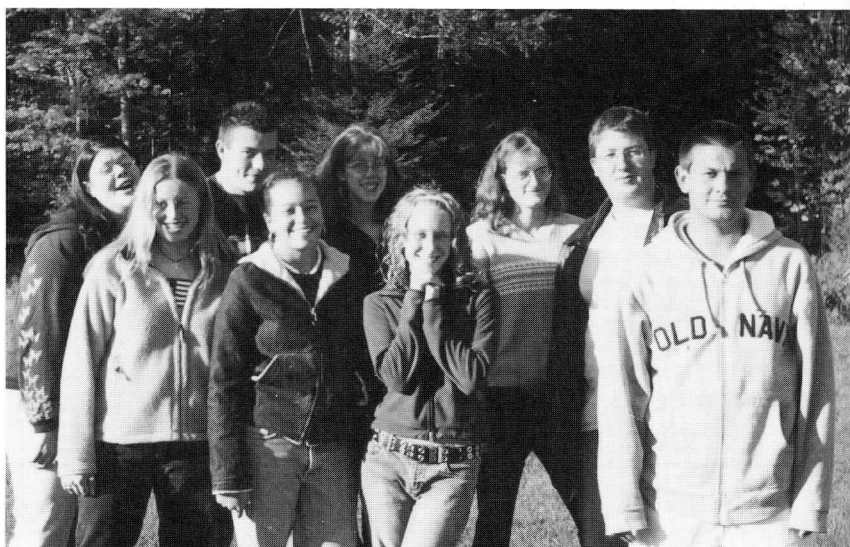

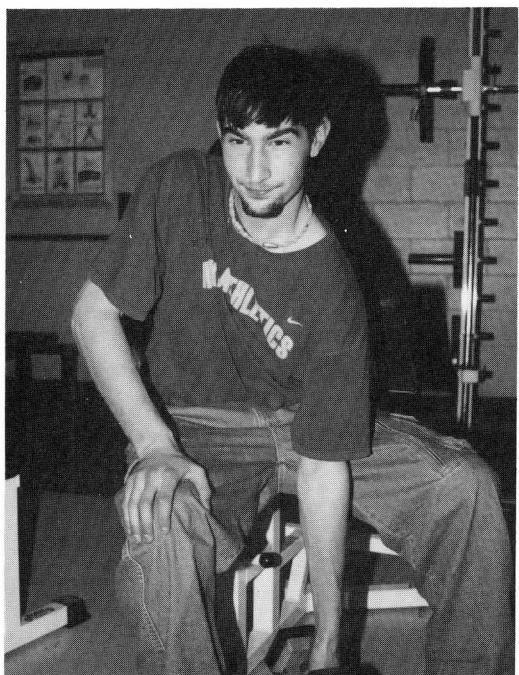

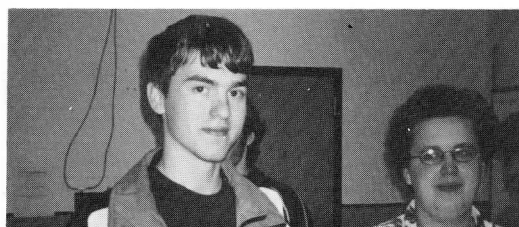

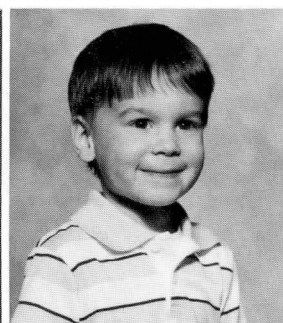

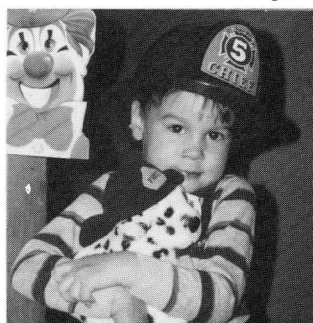

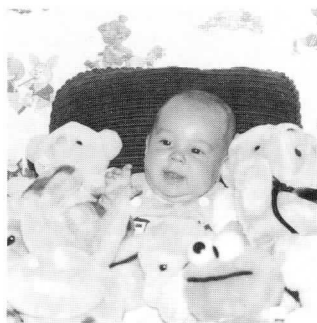

I love you G.W. Mom

Remember the triple-teaming on you in your football years! And your nickname from Coach Stanzione, aka Big A— Moose. You were great at football too.

We have surely been blessed with such a great son. You will truly succeed in your endeavors. You have the leadership skills to take you as far as you want, and we are behind you 100%. Love Mom & Dad.

You both are my life, soul, happiness, and my heart. You my SAMM are my baby. You have made me so proud. You are bright, intelligent, comical, respectful and beautiful. I know you will make it in this world. I and the whole families are very proud of you. And I know your father is too. Go and conquer the world with your smile.

WE ALL LOVE YOU VERY MUCH!!!

These 3 have been together since day one. No matter what, it has always been Samm, Katie & Jenna. They each have their own different and special personalities and through all these years they still are the best of friends. I feel like Jenna & Katie are my girls. My family wouldn't be or feel complete without them. I am honored to know them and feel privileged to love them. I love you Samm, Emma & Bella.
